The Trip of a Lifetime

Take a trip to East Africa. You begin this trip by visiting the wonderful wildlife parks. As well as travel by coach, there is also an opportunity to take a short trip in a hot-air balloon over the parks to get a better view of the wildlife.

After visiting the wildlife parks, you have the choice of either spending the rest of your holiday (7 nights) climbing Mount Kilimanjaro – the highest mountain in Africa – or, for the not so adventurous, sunbathing on the beautiful white sand beside the Indian Ocean. (It is also possible to stay an extra week at the coast.)

Day One: Drive to the National Park at Lake Manyara. This park is famous for the large variety of birds, which you can see there early in the morning.

Day Two: Leave Manyara for the Serengeti National Park, where you may see elephants, lions and giraffes.

Days Three To Eight: Spend these days travelling by coach around the park. All visitors have a window seat on the coach with a clear view for photographs of the park and animals. We ask visitors to speak quietly so as not to disturb them too much. The guides are highly experienced, but there is always the possibility that you may be very unlucky and not see certain animals.

Day Nine: Departure for the mountain trek or to the Indian Ocean. The Indian Ocean Hotel is on the beach and all rooms have air-conditioning and sea views. All water sports are available and there are tennis courts, which you can use free of charge except during high season, when there is a small booking fee.

No special skills are needed to climb Mount Kilimanjaro, but if you choose this trip, you must already be fit and healthy and ready to accept some very basic accommodation in mountain huts.

Most tours and safaris can only operate with a minimum number of passengers. If this number is not reached, we might cancel the tour. If this happens, we will make a decision at least 8 weeks before departure and will try to arrange a different holiday. Minimum numbers can be from 2 to 15 according to the tour.

For practical reasons, children under the age of 8 (under 12 on climbing holidays) may not be accepted on certain tours.

Task 3: Matching³

_____ / 5 points

The people below all want to watch a film. On the next page, there are reviews of eight films. Decide which film (A-H) would be the best for each person (1-5).

There is an example at the beginning (0).

0. David: David likes watching films that are not complicated. He likes musicals, but the actors don't need to be famous as long as the quality of the singing is good.

Film: A

1. Ryan: Ryan likes watching old-fashioned films on TV. He prefers comedies, particularly those with famous actors. He is not keen on musicals or thrillers.

Film: _____

2. Tom: Tom's hobby is reading and he enjoys watching films whose stories are taken from literature. His favourite books are those by famous authors of the past. He reads books about the cinema, too, and likes watching famous actors.

Film: _____

3. Elena: Elena likes to relax by watching the latest romantic films, especially if they make her laugh. She particularly likes those which also feature some music.

Film: _____

4. Belinda: Belinda enjoys watching thrillers. She prefers adventures which actually happened to people in real life, as she is interested in the lives of other people.

Film: _____

5. Aisha: Aisha loves listening to pop music and reading blogs about it. She doesn't mind what sort of film she sees if it's a new one about pop stars or their music.

Film: _____

Films to choose from:

A) See you in Sicily This is about a journey across Europe in the 1960s. A group of young people travel across Europe in an old van, but nothing really exciting happens to them and it isn't actually very amusing. It's a weak comedy film with singing. I had never heard of the actors before although some of them could certainly sing.	B) The moon and stars This follows the usual love story – boy meets girl, they fall in love and perform some songs about it. It's an enjoyable film, even though there's nothing special about the musical performance, and it has its funny parts. It comes to the TV screen very quickly, as it was only made a year ago.
C) Mad for music This film came out last month, and all the young people can't wait to see it. There will be a whole generation of fans watching because the music of this group, Sure Fire, is currently everyone's favourite.	D) The house by the lake Although the main roles are all acted by well-known celebrities, I got bored by the dialogue which seems too slow compared to modern films. However, people who like Henrietta Browne's writing will enjoy it because it is beautifully filmed, and the story keeps perfectly to the novel published two hundred years ago.
E) Seaside story This amusing film was made in the past, but is still as good as it was 25 years ago when I first saw it. The main actors, who were already famous when it was made, made several more films together later on. The story takes place in a very unusual hotel at the seaside where the guests struggle with a lot of problems.	F) Shooting for freedom Photographer Valerie Maine planned to work in a dangerous part of the world for six weeks. This adventure film is mainly about how she escaped from the people who held her prisoner for over a year. It is difficult to believe that this actually happened to someone who is alive.
G) Escape to Jupiter This film about adventures in space isn't supposed to make us laugh, but I'm afraid I wanted to sometimes. Even though it is one of several very similar films made recently, it's still one of the better ones, as it certainly knows how to hold your attention.	H) Another part of town This film manages to show some serious problems of a family in today's Britain without depressing its audience. If you haven't read Michael Stone's bestseller of the same name yet, you'll be pleased to watch this excellent film. And you'll still enjoy it if you have. There is some outstanding acting from some completely unknown actors.
